

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, October 23. 1706.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Octob. 22.

LETTERS from Naples of the 18th of September advise, that since the News arriv'd there of the Defeat of the French Army before Turin, the Governour had doubled his Severity against those who are suspected of being in the Interest of the House of Austria: That many of them were imprison'd daily, not only in Naples, but in several other Towns of that Kingdom. That least this Proceeding should excite some Tumult in the City, the Viceroy had publish'd a new Placard, by which all Persons are forbid to wear Arms of what kind soever, on what Pretext soever: That by the same Placard all Forreigners that came to Naples within 6 Months past, were order'd to remove, without excepting even the Subjects of Princes that are Neutral in the present War: And that in the mean time the Malecontents increas'd daily in Number, on the Frontier of the Province of Abruzzo.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 29.

The Advices from Naples of the 5th of this Month, are, that the Thursday before they receiv'd the News from Spain, that the Army of the Allies which had been some Time in the Kingdom of Castile, had pass'd the Tagus at Fuente Duena, to retire into the Kingdom of Valencia, whither that of King Philip was following them; but that this News had not been able to recover the Viceroy of Naples from the fear he was in that all Lombardy would quickly be lost: That the Viceroy apprehended more than ever a general Revolt: That to prevent it he caus'd every Gate of Naples to be guarded by 10 Horse and 60 Foot, who admitted no Person into the City without Passports: And that according to the last Advices from the Abruzzo, the Malecontents that had taken Arms there were increas'd to 500 Men.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 23.

Madrid, Oct 5. The 27th of last Month the King saw a Bull-Feast that had been prepar'd for him, and some other publick Diversions. The 28th a Courier arriv'd from the Duke of Berwick, bringing an Account that he had follow'd the Enemy with all possible Expedition, and that being inform'd they were in a Plain hard by Villaneuva de Xara the 24th, he march'd from Fuente Santa which is 10 Leagues from thence, to get up with them and endeavour to engage them. The Horse and Dragoons of the Left arriv'd first at Gineta, and found the Enemy part on this side of a River part on the other. The Duke halted, to wait for the Horse of the Right, and the Foot. 500 Dragoons falling upon some of the Enemy's Troops oblig'd them to pass the River, and abandon about 400 Waggon's or Carts loaded with Provisions and Baggage. Above 200 of the Enemy were kill'd, and almost as many taken Prisoners. The Foot not coming up time enough, those Troops of the Enemy that were on this side the River pass'd it, and their whole Army drew up in Battallia along the side of it. My Lord Duke of Berwick went himself to see whether there was any Place for the Troops to pass over at, and attack the Enemy if they should stand. In his Return 2 Officers were mortally wounded near him by 2 Cannon shot. In the Night the Enemy decamp'd, and march'd towards the Kingdom of Valencia by the Road of Requena: The King's Army continued to pursue them. The Troops of Murcia have attack'd the Lines which the Rebels of Cartagena had made for the Security of their Frontier. They have forc'd them with very great Violence, killing above 300 of the Enemy, making 50 of them Prisoners, and taking 2000 Head of Cattle, besides the Magazines of Bread-Corn and Oats which they found there. Yesterday about 3 in the Afternoon the King arriv'd at our Lady's Church of Atocha, where he perform'd his Devotions, and assisted at the Te Deum which was sung in Thanksgiving for his Return, and for the Deliverance of this City. Thence he came hither, being follow'd by an Extraordinary Crowd of People, who by continued Acclamations express'd their Joy to see their lawful Sovereign return'd. All the Bells were rung, and Bonfires and Illuminations were made throughout the City. The King has fill'd up several Places in the Councils that had been declar'd vacant, and they have been given to Persons of approv'd Loyalty, most of which had follow'd his Majesty to the Army, or had by his Order retir'd to Burgos. Some Officers who did not follow him, but yet who did not assist at the Tribunale when the Marquis das Minas caus'd them to be assembled, have been acquitted; others have been depriv'd of their Employments. We have receiv'd Advice from Salamanca, that the Portuguese being inform'd the Troops which were on the March to enter it, were advanc'd no further than to Alva de Tormes, where they waited for others, and that there were only Militia in that Place; knowing likewise that the City it self was of no Defence, and that the Works which had been begun could not be perfected; hasten'd their March; and began to attack that City the 12th Instant. They rais'd Batteries of Cannon and Mortars, and threw in a great Number of Bombs and Grenadoes. The Inhabitants were not wanting, tho' they were without regular Troops, and without Artillery, to defend themselves vigorously; the Clergy, the Monks, and Scholars of the University taking Arms, and exposing themselves to the Enemy's Fire with great Intrepidity, insomuch that with Musquet-shot they kill'd and wounded a great Number of the Besiegers. But the 17th there was so large a Breach in the Wall near the Gate of St. Thomas, that those of the City were forc'd to capitulate, and sav'd themselves from being plunder'd by promising 50000 Pistoles. Part of that Sum was paid, when the Marquis de Bay advanc'd with the Body he commanded, and the Portuguese not daring to stay for him, retir'd with Precipitation, carrying with them some considerable Persons for Hostages. The Damage done by the Bombs was inconsiderable, and only 2 Children were kill'd.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 26.

Madrid, Oct. 5. His Majesty has made Don Diego de Morales Secretary of the Council of the Orders; The Office of Secretary of new Spain is conferr'd upon Don Gaspar Pinedo, that of Peru upon Don Bernard Tinagero, that of the Chamber and of the Kingdom of Castile on Don Francisco Antonio Quincozes, those of the North and of Italy on Don Emanuel Vadillos, those of the Sea and Land on Don John d' Elizondo, the 2 Secretariats of the Council of the Finances on Don Andrew de Elcorabarutia and Don Francisco de St. John, that of the Kingdom of Naples on Don John de Corral, and that of Milan on Don Francisco Castejon. Which has been done, because part of those who formerly possess'd those Offices had declar'd for King Charles, and the others had render'd themselves suspected. The Inhabitants of Salamanca have sent Complaints to the King against Don Antonio de Vega their Governour, pretending he might have held out that Place against the Enemy till the Succours could have come up: And 'tis believ'd his Majesty will punish him for it.

From

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 29.
 Pampelona, Oct. 12. The Marquis de Castrillo, Don Miguel Francisco Guera, Don Garcia Bassan, and the Conde de Torrubia, Councillors of Castile, who had been banish'd from this City with other Ministers, are recall'd, and the King has continued to them half the Salaries of their Employments, upon Proof that they did not assist at any Council held by the Portugeze, and that they were indispos'd when their Majesties left Madrid. Don Joseph Perez de la Puente and Don Antonia Orta, who were also banish'd, have been justified in like Manner.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 26.

Madrid, Oct. 6. King Philip return'd hither the 4th Instant, but the Queen is still at Burgos. The News we have receiv'd of the Defeat of the Army of the 2 Crowns before Turin, has caus'd a great Consternation here among the Adherents to the House of Bourbon, who are afraid it will be attended by as bad Consequences as the Battle of Ramilly. The Duke of Gravina is made a Councillor of the Council of State, of which his Brother the Cardinal del Giudice is also a Member.

From the Amst. and Leid. Gazettes, dated Oct. 26.

From the Duke of Berwick's Camp at Iniesta, Oct. 1. The 30th of last Month M. de Hefly was detach'd with 25 Companies of Grenadiers, 2 Regiments of Dragoons, 200 Horse, and 3 Pieces of Cannon, to besiege Cuenza: And 7 Battallions of French and a Regiment of Spanish Horse are to reinforce him. The Enemy had at first but 1000 Men garrison'd in that Place, but have since reinforce'd them with 3 Battallions and a Regiment of Horse. The Duke of Berwick is encamp'd here to cover that Siege, with Part of his Army, the Chevalier d'Asfeld remaining with the rest in the Camp at Terrassonne, with all the Right Wing of the first Line, and the Brigade de la Farre. Our Troops are in a pretty good Condition, but Distempers begin to grow rise among them, by Reason of their eating Grapes too freely: The Horse are a little fatigu'd, with the almost continual Marches which they have been oblig'd to make since the 8th of last Month.

From the Paris Letter, dated Oct. 25.

Paris, Oct. 25. The 21d Instant a Courier from the Duke of Berwick arriv'd at Court, with the following News.

The Grenadiers commanded by M. de Hefly, that were detach'd from the Army to possess themselves of Cuenza, having taken Post on an Eminence near that Town, by which they not only cut off all the Enemy's Communication with Arragon, but facilitated the Attack of the Place, the Garrison offer'd to capitulate. M. de Hefly answer'd, that they were to expect no other Terms, than to be made Prisoners of War. M. Dumada a Spanish Major General, who commanded in the Place, and several other Officers that were in it being Deserters from the Troops of Spain, fearing that should they make Resistance they could nor hope to make any Composition, but that they should be treated as Rebels and Traitors, yielded themselves the 9th Prisoners of War, on Condition however to have no Hurt done them, and to be exchange'd in Course. That Garrison consisting of 3 Regiments of Foot, 1 of Horse, and 1000 English and Dutch detach'd from the Portugeze Army, march'd out the 10th and will be put into the Prisons of Andaloufia. In the Place were found 5 Field-Pieces. The D. of Berwick writes, that M. Jeoffreville and Medinailla had penetrated into the Kingdom of Valencia with Part of the Army, and that he hop'd to follow with the rest in 2 or 3 Days. At the End of his Letter he says M. de Medinailla had taken Origuela, Sword in Hand, that the Place was plunder'd, and that a great Number of disaffected Monks that had taken Refuge in it and were found arm'd were kill'd. And in a Postscript the Duke of Berwick relates, that the City of Murcia and a strong Castle not far from it were success'd by the King's Troops who had oblig'd the Enemy to raise the Sieges of them. This Letter is dated the 12th of this Month from the Camp at Almanza.

London, Oct. 23.

Yesterday the Parliament met at Westminster, and was farther prorogu'd to Thursday the 21st of next Month.

Notice is hereby given to the several Widows of Officers kill'd in her Majesty's Service in the Low Countries, (who are contain'd in a List Sign'd by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough) that 6 Months Pension, due at Midsummer last, is ready to be paid by Mr. Parsons at the Horse-Guards near Whitehall. By the deserted Company of Comedians of the Theatre Royal.

At the Queen's Theatre in Dorset-Garden, to Morrow being Thursday, the 24th of October, will be Acted a Comedy, call'd, The RECRUITING OFFICER. In which they Pray there may be Singing by, Mrs. Toffs in English and Italian. And some Dancing.

By her Majesty's Company of Comedians.

At the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Wednesday being the 23d of October, will be presented a Play, call'd, The Jew of Venice. All the parts being perform'd to the best Advantage.

These Plays are Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Lintott next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar.

An Entertainment by Mr. CLINCH of BARNET, who imitates the Flute, Double Currell, the Organ with 3 Voices, the Horn, Huntsman and Pack of Hounds, the Sham Doctor, the Old Woman, the Drunken Man, the Bells: All Instruments are perform'd by his natural Voices. To be seen this present Evening at 7 a Clock at the old Bear's-Head and Oxford-Arms at Smithfield-Bar. Price 1 s.

Lost on Sunday Morning last, a Gold Case of a Watch Engraved, between Creed-Lane and Ludgate-Church, whoever brings it to Sam's Coffee-house in Ludgate-street, shall receive 10 s. Reward.

To Morrow, the 24th of this Instant October, will be expos'd to Sale by the Candle, at Lloyd's Coffee-House in Lombard-street, beginning at 5 of the Clock in the Afternoon, 40 Butts 1 Ull, Sweet Malaga, at 20l. per Butt, lying in a Cellar of Brewer's Key. And on Friday the 25th Instant, at the above said Place, will likewise be expos'd to Sale 32 Butts 1 Ull, Roto, Tent, at 30l. per Butt, the said Tents to be seen in Stirling-Lane under Mr. VVife's, Marchant. Sold by John Styles Sworn Broker.

This Day will begin the Sale by Auction, of a curious Collection of Books, consisting of the most eminent English Authors in Divinity, History, Travels, Miscellanies, Lives, Physics, Mathematicks, Poetry, &c. To be Sold at the Marine Coffee-House in Birch Lane, Cornhill, from 4 to 8 in the Evening, by Edmund Curll, Bookseller, at the Peacock without Temple-Bar, where Catalogues may be had at the Place of Sale.

A very good House and Shop near Ludgate in Ludgate-street, is to be Lett; fit for any considerable Trade. Enquire at Mr. Kings, a Carpenter by the Ditch-side.

The Volatile Aromatick-Salt for the Pocker, of a most Fragrant, Wholefome and Durable Scent, wholly free from Musk, Civer, or any thing offensive to the Brain, and so extraordinary Pleasant, Reviving and Comforting, that nothing in Nature is more Excellent and Agreeable in Head-achs, Giddiness, Drowiness, Vapours, Fainting-Fits and the like; its Scent is so Refreshing, Enlivening, and Quickning, that all Persons who have us'd it, admire the same. Sold only by Mr. Varennes a Bookseller, at Seneca's Head near Somerset-house in the Strand; and John Turney's at the Rainbow Coffee-house in Cornhill. Price 1 s. the Bottle with Directions.

The famous Royal Essence for the Hair of the Head, Perriwig, &c. being the most delightfully charming Perfume in Nature, excellently beneficial to Health, and the best Preserver of Hair in the World, keeping that of Perriwigs in the Curl, and all Hair from fading or changing Colour; makes the Hair of the Head grow thick, strengthens and confirms its Roots, and infallibly keeps it from falling off, or splitting at the Ends. By its incomparable Perfume it strengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, but never raises the Vapours in Ladies; it also scents Handkerchiefs excellently. Since it has been so exceedingly admir'd, and valu'd by the Nobility and Gentry it has been basely counterfeited, therefore take Notice that the true is to be had only at Mr. Allcraft's a Toy-shop at the Blue-coat Boy against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

In a few Days will be publish'd,

Athenian Sport: Or, Two Thousand Paradoxes merrily argued, to Amuse and Divert the Age: As, A Paradox in praise of a Paradox. Corporeal Affections remain after Separation. The Eye beholds as much when it looks on a Shilling, as when it speculates the whole Heaven. Every Man is corporally born twice. The Restor'd Maidenhead, or a marry'd Woman may be twice a Virgin. Athenian, or Intellectual Sport is the Recreation of Pre-existent Spirits. 'Tis the Pleasantest Life to be always in danger. The same merical Voice of a Preacher is not heard by any two of his Auditors. What we call Life, is Natural Death. He is the Happiest Man who has neither Money nor Friend. Green come from the Dead, or no Man lives but he that is Hang'd. The Virgin-Paradox, or a Young Lady may Love and Hate the same Person at the same Time. That Burning alive is no Torment. And so on, to the defence of 2000 Paradoxes, which seem contrary to the common Opinion. With Improvements from the Hon. Mr. Boyle, Lock, Norris, Collier, Cowley, Dryden, Garth, Addison, and other Illustrious Wits.

A Sermon preach'd in the Parish Church of St. James Westminster, on Sunday the 20th of September 1706. By the Right Reverend Father in God, William Lord Bishop of Lincoln, as his taking his Leave of the said Parish. Printed for Richard Sare at Gray's Inn-Gate in Holborn.

The History of the Rebellion and Civil Wars in England, VVritten by the Right Honourable Edward Earl of Clarendon, lately Printed at the Theatre in 6 Vol in 8vo on Royal Paper, is Sold by Eliz. Seant at the Half-Moon in St. Paul's Church-yard.

Sancti Athenagoræ Atheniensis Phil. C. Legatio pro Christianis, ad Imperatores M. Aurelium Antoninum, & L. Aurelium Commodum. Ejusdem de Resurrectione Mortuorum. Accurata Latina Versio, Emendationes, Variantes Lectiones, Annotationes, acque Indices necessarij. Cura & studio Edw. Decisr A. M. Oxoniensis Theatro. Printed for S. and J. Sprint, A. and J. Churchill, T. Childs and R. Knaplock, Bookellers in London. in 8vo.